

Loai Barakat, B.Sc.

Business Development & Inspection Manager

Loai received his B.Sc. majored in applied chemistry in 1999-2000 from Damascus University in Syria. He ranked the FIRST in all his academic years with graduation of 76.50% marks and holds accordingly the Superior Student certificates attested dully from ministry of high education in Syria.

Loai has been certified by "UNION ARABIAN UNIVERSITIES" for completing "Student Knowledge & Experience Exchange" summer course in 1998 and obtain additional certificate from "AL-HAWAMDIAH factory for sugar producing & complete industries" at the sections of "chemicals-fragrances-purification & distillation" in the same year.

Loai joined 3M Gulf in mid-2006 as Technical Service Engineer handling "Personal Care Division" in Middle East & Africa upon his past intensive experience in hygiene industries (SCA – Molnlyke in Sweden) and then been promoted in mid-2009 to handle "Corrosion Protection Products Division" as Senior Technical Engineer for the same geographical territory and contributed in many coating inspections, qualifications, testing and specification for major and critical projects in Gulf region (Ref. available).

In August, 2014 he joined Charter Coating as Business Development and Inspection Manager to utilize his profound experiences in O&G business and assist to extend the company services and marketing strategies. His responsibility is to strengthen Charter's existing business relationship with current as well as new potential clients locally and internationally, leading at the same time the inspection team.